

Question 1

Many candidates correctly rearranged the equation. Some students made an error in the subtraction step.

Question 2

Most students successfully differentiated $3x^2$. However, some candidates showed a misconception about the constant term.